OLG ANNUAL RUMMAGE SALE - GIANT

THANKS! - As usual, the wonderful volunteers of Our Lady of Grace out-did themselves again this year. We could not have done it without you. MANY THANKS to all those who helped in any way for all your hard work and dedication. You are appreciated!

Even over the summer months, our parish is full of interesting activities that express the diverse talents of our parishioners and the broad range of ministries available at Our Lady of Grace. As your pastor, now, these past three years, I am continually impressed with the volunteer efforts that invigorate parish life.

This weekend, the Women's Guild and Christian Mothers, again, organized our annual Rummage Sale to raise money for OLG. Due to the generosity of so many of our parishioners who donated their used items, we are able to raise thousands of dollars for our parish. Janet and Charlie Scarvace have a big hand in advertising and organizing this annual summer event, along with many other volunteers who unpack, sort, display and price the items people give us to sell. Once the final figures are all calculated, we'll post the fundraising total in the bulletin.

Last week, also, the first of our OLG Men's Group Summer Mass and Breakfast Meetings was held on Tuesday, June 19th. We began with 6:45 a.m. Mass, enjoyed a continental breakfast in Keefer Hall, and discussed the heroic ideal in the Homeric epics of The Illiad and The Odyssey. The morning included lively table discussions of the heroic elements in our daily lives. The next OLG Men's Group Meeting will be Wednesday morning, July 25th.

And for the past few weeks, The Light Weigh Bible Study group has gathered about 20 women, or so, for intriguing discussion, study and prayer aimed at deepening the spiritual lives of the participants. This is the third summer that we have offered the program at OLG.

So, besides worship at Sunday Mass, there are many ways to stay active in parish life over the summer months, including the upcoming Vacation Bible School the week of July 9-13 and the Annual Parish Festival from August 13-18.
