This Wednesday evening, September 16, from 7:30-9:00 p.m., the second in our four-part Marriage Enrichment Series will be held in Keefer Hall. Last week, following the opening Mass, the two topics explored were Communication and the Stages of Marriage. This week, Bill and Evelyn Turocy will discuss the experience of Unity in married life followed by Jim and Michele Cardone discussing Faith in marriage.

This is the first time we have offered an adult education program specifically focused on various aspects of the Sacrament of Marriage for our parishioners. If you are looking for a clearinghouse of ideas and experiences to better understand and strengthen your marriage, then I strongly suggest that you make time on Wednesday evenings in September to come to this valuable series of presentations and discussions. Even if you miss one or another of the talks, the other evening's topics should stimulate dialogue between you and your spouse.

In ten days, on Wednesday, September 23, the topics include Sexuality, the Theology of the Body and Natural Family Planning. The final evening of the series, Wednesday, September 30, will be about Finances and Parenting. I hope to see you on these Wednesday evenings. I am confident that the quality of the presentations will stimulate valuable discussions for our married couples that evening and beyond.

Rev. Richard A. Infante
Pastor
