BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS - As the Church celebrates the life of Saint Francis of Assisi in October, the parish will have a blessing of the animals on Thursday, October 4, at 7:00 p.m. near the Marian Chapel in the front of the Church. Please have your pets on leashes or in cages to prevent any misconduct among the animals. Thank you!

SO, YOU WOULD LIKE TO DEVOTE SOME TIME and talent to Our Lady of Grace but find your time is limited. If so, why not become a lector? You would be scheduled only once a month with the opportunity to volunteer for special occasions. We train! If interested, call Bill Plank at 412-279-4726.

The Most Reverend David A. Zubik, M.S. Ed., D.D.

On Friday, September 28, Most Reverend David A. Zubik was installed as the twelfth Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh in a Mass at St. Paul Cathedral. On Thursday, September 27, all the parishes in the Diocese observed a Holy Hour with Benediction for the Needs of the Church in solidarity with Bishop Zubik.

David A. Zubik was born on September 4, 1949 in Sewickley. His father, Stanley, lived with him in Green Bay and now has returned with him to Pittsburgh. His mother, Susan (Raskosky), died in 2006. The family lived for many years in Ambridge and belonged to Good Samaritan Parish.

He attended Saint Stanislaus Elementary School and Saint Veronica High School, both in Ambridge, before entering Saint Paul Seminary in Pittsburgh. He received an undergraduate degree at Duquesne University in 1971 and continued his studies at Saint Mary Seminary and University in Baltimore, Maryland, where he earned a degree in theology.

After his ordination as a priest by Bishop Vincent M. Leonard on May 3, 1975, he served as Parochial Vicar at Sacred Heart Parish in Shadyside until July 24, 1980. He was then named Vice-Principal of Quigley Catholic High School in Baden as well as Chaplain at the Sisters of Saint Joseph Motherhouse, and Chaplain to the students at Mount Gallitzin Academy. At the same time, he began graduate studies in the School of Education at Duquesne University where he earned a masters degree in education administration in 1982.

In 1987, he was appointed Administrative Secretary to then-Bishop Anthony Bevilacqua, who is the retired Cardinal Archbishop of Philadelphia. In 1988, he was named Administrative Secretary and Master of Ceremonies to then-Bishop Donald W. Wuerl, who has since been named Archbishop of Washington, D.C.

In 1991, Bishop Zubik was appointed the Director of the Department for Clergy Personnel. Bishop Zubik was named Associate General Secretary and Chancellor of the Diocese of Pittsburgh in 1995 and then Vicar General and General Secretary in 1996, a position in which he was responsible for the administration of diocesan central offices. He also served as the Chaplain to the Sisters of the Holy Spirit at their Motherhouse in Ross Township.

On April 6, 1997, he was ordained an auxiliary bishop for the Diocese of Pittsburgh and given the Titular See of Jamestown, North Dakota.

Bishop Zubik has served on many boards and committees at the diocesan, local and national levels, including Saint Paul and Saint Vincent Seminaries, the Pennsylvania Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Duquesne University Board of Directors, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Priestly Life and Ministry, and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Priestly Formation.

On October 10, 2003, Pope John Paul II named Bishop Zubik as the eleventh Bishop of the Diocese of Green Bay. Bishop Zubik was installed on December 12, 2003.

Bishop Zubik is the fifth native son to lead the Diocese of Pittsburgh. The others include: Bishop J. F. Regis Canevin (1904-1921), Bishop Hugh C. Boyle (1921-1950), Bishop Vincent M. Leonard (1969-1983), and Archbishop Donald W. Wuerl (1988-2006).

7 WEEK COURSE ON MORALITY—BEGINNING

MONDAY, OCT. 8 - What do the Commandments, the Beatitudes and the laws of the Church have to do with following Jesus? What's the reason for all of these rules? Can anyone really live this way? Looking for answers? Set out on an exciting 7 week journey into a deeper understanding of our faith. Fr. Richard Infante, pastor, and Marie Milburn, Director of Family Life & Adult Catechesis, will teach "Morality: Life in Christ" on Monday evenings, Oct. 8 through Nov. 19, from 7:00 p.m.-10:00 p.m. in Keefer Hall. "Morality: Life in Christ" is a pillar course in the Diocesan Basic Catechist Certification program. The cost is $30 (waived for O.L.G. school teachers and catechists). For more information or to register call Marie Milburn, 412-276-0278.

WORKSHOP ON END-OF-LIFE DECISION MAKING—WEDNESDAY, OCT. 3

Our Lady of Grace Church will host a workshop on "Difficult Decisions? Living Wills and Advanced Directives: A Catholic Perspective" on Wednesday, October 3, at 7:00 p.m. in Keefer Hall. The workshop will discuss the impact of Catholic teaching on end-of-life decisions and how to help those working through this often difficult process. The workshop will include a review of the document "Living Will and Proxy for Health Care Decisions" authorized and offered for use by the Catholic Bishops of Pennsylvania. Susan Rauscher, Secretary for Pastoral and Social Concerns and Director of the Respect Life Office for the Diocese of Pittsburgh, will present. For more information, call Marie Milburn, Director of Family Life and Adult Catechesis, at 412-276-0278. All are welcome.
